

The Mark L. Haberkorn Religious School
Temple Sinai of Las Vegas
2018-2019 Registration Packet

“Teach them faithfully to your children; speak of them in your home and on your way, when you lie down and when you rise up.” (Deuteronomy 6:7)

Letter from the Director

Representing the entire Mark L. Haberkorn Religious School, thank you very much for taking the time to register your student(s). Truly, each individual student makes a difference to our classrooms and our entire school – when a student is absent, their absence is truly felt. As a community of learners, each of us at the Religious School is committed to ensuring that all of our students are learning in a positive, safe, and relevant environment. With every decision that we make, we are committed to teaching with relevant materials that are practical to modern American Reform Jewish life, in a warm, lively, and exciting way.

When describing synagogue religious schools like ours, the phrase commonly used is “supplementary education”. Some of my colleagues in Jewish Education challenge this term, as it may seem belittling or secondary; while I agree that this impression could not be further from the truth, I embrace this term. We teach valuable, relevant skills and information here at the Mark L. Haberkorn Religious School as a supplement to the Jewish life taking place at home, to solidify the Jewish foundation within each of our students. As supplementary educators, the teachers and I serve as your partners in your students’ Jewish education and lives - we cherish the trust that you have in us, and we take it very seriously. It’s going to be a wonderful year here in 2018-2019, and thank you for choosing to be a part of it!

L’Shalom, To Peace,

Religious School Family Contract

Parents, please initial each standard while going over each area with your student(s)

OUR GOAL: As we begin a new school year with tremendous enthusiasm our hope is that each student and his/her family will find the program meaningful and stimulating. By following a few guidelines, you will be doing your part to ensure a successful school year.

_____ Make-up Work - Students should come to school regularly and be prepared when readings or other activities have been assigned. In case of illness or unexpected circumstances preventing attendance, parents will notify the school office. Additionally, parents should contact the student's teacher to determine what arrangements can be made with the teacher to make up class work.

_____ Tardiness & Early Exits - Classes on Sunday begin at 9:30 a.m and concludes at 12 p.m, while Wednesday classes begin at 4:30 p.m and conclude at 6:30 p.m. Tardiness and early exits are a disruption to your student, their teacher, and their classmates. Please make every effort to be on time, and please feel free to reach out to the Religious School office to discuss any logistical challenges you may be facing. Any student leaving class early must be picked up from the classroom and signed-out to ensure the safety of our whole student body. Parents, please email the religious school office in advance if a student needs to leave

_____ Bullying – The Mark L. Haberkorn Religious School is a community of learners, and kavod (respect) towards teachers and other students will be expected. The Mark L. Haberkorn Religious School has a zero-tolerance policy towards bullying of any kind, including (but not limited to) bullying on the grounds of age, race, gender, sexual orientation, or nationality. Depending on the severity of the situation, consequences may include expulsion from the Haberkorn Religious School without refund.

_____ Disciplinary Procedures – Will be as follows: first warning by teacher; second warning by teacher; sent to office & call home; review of this contract with director, student & a parent/guardian; discussion of further enrollment at the Religious School. Along the way, all parties involved will be working towards solutions and problem-solving strategies, rather than punishments. The only exception to this procedure are severe instances of bullying or other extreme circumstances that threaten the safety of the greater student body – final rulings are at the discretion of the Religious School Director.

_____ Invitations - If invitations to birthday parties, Bar/Bat Mitzvah, etc. are handed out in the classroom every classmate must receive one. If this is not the case, the teacher will collect the invitations and return them to the parent at the end of the class.

_____ Classroom Visits - Guests are welcome to attend religious school with an enrolled student with the permission of the Director. The school office and teacher must be notified in advance of the visit.

_____ Service Attendance - Temple Sinai is not only a place to learn about Judaism and to study the Hebrew language – it is also a community. Building and strengthening social bonds and connections among our students and families is a primary goal of our School. It is therefore essential that children attend services on a regular basis. Students are required to attend a certain number of services a year. There will be a sign in sheet with the usher in the lobby. These services can be Shabbat services, Tot-Shabbat, Family Service, or a holiday service, at Temple Sinai. The number of services a year is as follows:

Kindergarten, 1 st , 2 nd	_____	6 services per year
3 rd – 5 th	_____	9 services per year
6 th & 7 th	_____	12 services per year
8 th & 9 th	_____	6 services per year

By signing this agreement, we acknowledge the expectations and requirements of the Mark L. Haberkorn Religious School, and agree to follow all school protocol to the best of our abilities.
